

ASLA EARLY CAREER TEACHER LIBRARIAN AWARD 2022

This inaugural national award recognises and honours an Australian Teacher Librarian in their first five years of teaching, who has made an outstanding contribution to their school community and potentially beyond. This annual award acknowledges an early career Teacher Librarian for their high level of achievement in professional knowledge, practice and engagement. They will be able to demonstrate they have made a positive impact on teaching and learning in their school.

ASLA LIBRARY ADVOCATE AWARD 2022

This inaugural national award is to encourage library staff to further develop their professional learning and make a positive contribution to their school community. This award is open to any library staff working in a school library. The nominee will need to be able to demonstrate engagement with their school community, wider networks, online forums, and attendance or engagement with professional learning.

Please refer to the ASLA Website for further information about prizes and nomination details:

<https://asla.org.au>

Nominations close 25 March 2022

The Awards will be announced at ASLA's Annual General Meeting in April 2022

Proudly sponsored by

