

February to March 2014

A. Leadership

Policy Advisory Project Team: Highly Accomplished evidence guide has been uploaded to the members' section of the ASLA website. Proficient evidence guide is nearing completion.

Professional Learning Project Team: First Wednesday webinar on RDA with Pru Mitchell was well attended. The Science in the Australian curriculum was also well received. Future program is to be advertised on the ASLA website and in the ASLA President's monthly e-newsletters. See <http://www.asla.org.au/Professional-learning/webinars.aspx> for more information.

Publications Project Team: Access Issue 1 for 2014 completed and available online.

Publications Project Team: E-books in learning: a beginner's guide promotion and reviews ongoing. See <http://www.asla.org.au/publications.aspx> for more information.

B. Management

Membership drive is well underway with two campaigns completed in November 2013 and February 2014.

Call for nominations for Board positions closed on 14 March.

C. Relationships

Our strategic alliance with Booktopia continues to support school libraries. Please see the post on Australian curriculum resources for more information - <http://www.asla.org.au/>
